· appointed to converse with Mrs. Kitty V Argyle upon the impropriety of her conduct in permitting danc arily withdrew to connect herself with what is called the new school denomination and is now desirous t of criminal intercourse with an unmarried woman. To be suspended until he give satisfactory evidence of adultery, of common notoriety, and undenied, was by resolution of the session suspended. In 1870 c his life on 26 June 1845 in the 41st year of her age. Daughter of William and Jane Gray. Had been in bad ing in her house. Reported that they had discharged that duty and that it appeared that Mrs. Argyle was to return. With a view to better understanding the propriety of receiving her again the Rec. Babcock is ap of the sincerity of his repentance. To be published in the presence of the male members of this congrega under the impression that permitting dancing in her house was not contrary to the rules of the Presbytc arian Church. She regretted that she had been guilty of the offense in doing which she had no evil inten ition and having promised in the future to be more circumspect in her conduct. The session things it ad visible to excuse her.
